ICE FOR SMALL-POX.—From numerous experiments made in the great hospital at Posen, Prussia, it appears that ice is a most effectual remedy against small-pox. One of the patients, in a fit of delirium, escaped to the garden, where the snow lay two feet deep. There he remained the whole night, with no covering but his shirt. On the following morning the fever had subsided and the pustules had dried. This strange circumstance attracted the physicians' attention, and, after consultation, determined to keep the temperature of the small-pox wards very low, and apply small quantities of ice to the patients. The result surpassed their expectations, and at the end of a week all patients had recovered.

CLOUD LESSONS.

We watched the clouds at close of day:
A few were white as driven snow,
And all the rest were black or gray.

He said: "Some men have souls as clean
As yon white clouds; but, well I know
Such men are few and far between."

Asked little Alice, moving near:
"Why are those clouds as dark as lead
So near the hill-top, grandpa dear?

"And why are those that look like heaven
So far above the rest?" He said:
"White clouds and men are nearest heaven.

He rose and leaned upon his staff,
An aged man with pleasant eye,
And mellow cadence in his laugh.

The sunshine lingered overhead
Among the moving shapes; the sky
Was light, the earth grew dark. He said:

"These ever-changing moving clouds
Well represent the men we know,
And faithful pictures of the crowds

"That ever change, but never rest,
Where many come and many go."
And then he smiled as if in jest.

But as the sun sank low and lower,
The white clouds shone with many a ray;
The rest seemed darker than before.

He said: "This picture must decide
The fate of men; at close of day
Only the pure are glorified."

A Stranger in the Supreme Court.

"The appeal oft proclaims the man," said Polonius. He was judicious in not substituting always for "oft." For, not infrequently, it has been found that the finest bird is not the one that wears the finest feathers.

Years ago, the staid citizens of Washington were astonished one morning at the appearance of a strange figure in the streets. He was dressed in an old pair of cardroys, ripped at the ankle for convenience in rolling up, a drab overcoat, much the worse for wear, and furnished with several capes, hung at his heels. Worn-out, untied, unbuckled shoes and a "shocking hat" completed his costume.

Solemnly he stalked through the streets, six feet in height, leading a little black, rough-haired filly, her tail matted with burs. A pair of small saddle bags hung over the saddle, in which were stuffed papers and ginger-bread and cheese. Stopping at an obscure tavern, he put up his mare and relieved himself of his great coat. Into one of the pockets of a short, gray linsey round-about he stuffed some bread and cheese, and into the other a bundle of law-papers, tied with a yarn string.

Inquiring the way to the Supreme Court, he walked forth, the wonder of the negroes and idle boys. Arriving at the Court house, he sauntered within the bar, took a seat and began munching bread and cheese. The lawyer and spectators smiled at the awkward countryman on his first visit to the Capital.

Soon a case was called which seemed to interest the countryman. It involved the title to a large tract of land lying in the "Green River country" of Kentucky.

A Mr. Taylor of Virginia, a leading lawyer, began his argument by a statement of the facts. All at once the countryman stopped munching, and, tapping the counsel on the back, corrected one of his "facts."

The lawyer paused, frowned at the busybody and went on. The countryman resumed his munching, and in a few moments again corrected the counsel. "I beg the Court to protect me from the impertinence of that person," said Taylor, showing much irritation.

Taylor finished his powerful argument, and then, to the amazement of spectators, the Bar and Judges, the stranger rose to reply. His manner was wholly changed. He stood as if he had practiced in that Court all his professional life. His argument was so clear and forcible, and his reply to the opposing counsel so masterly, that the Bar and Court looked as if they doubted their eyes and ears.

Mr. Taylor seemed paralized. The sweat dropped from his face. The rustic he had sneered at seemed a legal giant. Every one asked, "Who is he?"

It was Joe Davies, one of the best lawyers and most eloquent orators of Kentucky, as eccentric as he was gifted. Scarcely one present knew him personally, but all had heard of his brilliant reputation.

A broker was asked why he did not furnish his correspondents with printed envelopes addressed to himself. "Oh, that would never do," said he; "it might lose me half my customers. In many cases the partners in a firm deal with me, each unknown to the other. If each knew the other was speculating in stocks, it might break up the firm.

A New York inventor claims to have discovered a process for making all fabrics water-proof; but what is more needed is an inventor that will make milk-cans water-proof. Or the cow. We believe it has never been definitely settled whether the water leaks in through the cow or the can.

How is it possible to expect that mankind will take advice, when they will not so much as take warning.

There are rumors that Keely, the motor man, has turned his attention to a machine for sticking pins through a starched collar.

Miners need be in no hurry to visit Owyhee, as there are as many men there as can find employment.

SAN FRANCISCO AGENCY.—L. P. Fisher, 21 Merchants' Exchange, is our Agent, and is authorized to contract for advertising, receive subscriptions and make collections on our account.

NEWS OF THE MORNING.

Tioga levies an assessment of five cents, and the Martin White fifty cents.

Fire at Santa Rosa, yesterday, destroyed seven buildings. Loss $15,000.

General Grant has arrived safely at Galveston.

The Senate Committee on Indian affairs has drafted a bill in regard to the Ute Indians.

Russia is to have more prisons in Eastern Siberia.

The report that Seward had made a new treaty with China is denied.

A father named Lewis, residing at Marshall, Texas, gave his young son morphine, from which he died, and then took a dose himself and died Sunday night, supposed to have been insane.

At Alma, Colorado, on Monday, W. J Porter killed Thos. Callaghan, and he was then taken by unmasked citizens and hanged.

THE INSTALMENT PLAN.

A bill is now before our wise men in Sacramento, providing for the payment of taxes on the instalment plan. If the first half is paid on or before the 3d day of December, the balance need not be paid before the first day of June following, but if the first half is not paid on the 3d of December then the whole amount becomes delinquent. This is a proposition that will meet the approval of nine-tenths—yes, of the entire tax-paying public of this State. As the law now stands every person whose name is on the several assessment rolls throughout the State is put to his trumps to raise the wherewith to pay his yearly tax, and coming in the winter season, the dullest of the year, much hardship is wrought, particularly to the laboring man, who owning his little homestead, may have a tax of $20 or $30 to pay—a large item to meet in the dead of winter, when work may be hard to get, and a family has to be supported. But if he can pay half and then have a respite of six months in which to pay the balance, the hardship would not be so great and the few dollars would be cheerfully paid to the tax collector. Under such a plan the collections would be much heavier, the delinquent tax lists would be light, the counties would have more funds to liquidate their indebtedness, the money would be kept in circulation and every man, woman and child in the State would be benefitted thereby. As this installment plan is in vogue in many of the Eastern States, and the question has been often mooted in California, and as the members of the Constitutional Convention considered it of such great importance as to make a constitutional provision to give the Legislature authority to pass a law of this character, we see no reason why our Legislators should not pass the bill now before it.

Mr. Davis, of Esmeralda county, has succeeded in organizing a narrow-guage railroad company, to construct a road from Wadsworth, on the Central Pacific Railroad south to Callville, on the Colorado river. The capital required—$1,500,000—has been guaranteed. The road will open up a region wonderfully rich in minerals, tapping the Columbus, Candelaria and Lida Valley Districts, as well as the remarkable borax deposits of Southwest Nevada. It can be easily connected with roads across the Sierras, opening up Owens river, near Mammoth, Inyo and San Bernardino counties, and the road must, if pushed, find its way into Northern Arizona, also.

Governor Perkins has issued his proclamation calling a special election for the 30th of March for the election of a Joint Senator for San Francisco and San Mateo, to fill the vacancy caused by non-eligibility of Robert Desty.

Mrs. Morris Cavanaugh was thrown over the grade on the West Union road, two miles west of Redwood City, and instantly killed. It appears that she got out of the wagon to fix the bridle, and when she got in again the horses backed over the grade.

The Senate Sub-Committee on Judiciary have agreed unanimously to report favorably on the bill taking away the lands of roads as have failed to complete their roads within the time specified.

On February 29th, two miles west of Umpaqua Bar, J. L. Wastrá, seaman, fell from the jibboom of the ship J. B. Leeds, and was drowned. He was a native of Holland.

A chrome iron ledge which promises well has been discovered on Ward Creek, about eight miles north of Guerneville, Sonoma County.

Andrew McGuire, formerly of Tuscarora, was killed by a snow-slide between Challis and Bonanza City, Montana, on March 10th.

At Sacramento on Friday, David Cross, while intoxicated, fell from his truck and was killed by the wheels passing over him.

A bill has been introduced in the Legislature providing for two tax payments—payable in June and December.

On and after Monday next ten hours will be a day's work at Mare Island.

The President has nominated Bret Harte for Consul at Glasgow.

Telegraphic.

COAST.

Assessments.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 23.—Tioga levies an assessment of five cents, and the Martin White fifty cents.

Fire.

SANTA ROSA, March 23.—About 1 o'clock this morning a fire broke out in the rear of a number of frame houses, on Fourth Street betwen Exchange Avenue and B Street and destroyed seven buildings. Loss about $15,000.

Legislative.

SACRAMENTO, March 23.—Assembly bill No. 131—Enabling Act for State Board of Equalization, was taken up and finally passed as amended on third reading. The Sweetland Drainage Bill came up as special order. Young offered substitute in which its general features were preserved, except that all that part relating to district bonds was stricken out, and provision made for a district tax of one-twentieth of one per cent; an annual State tax of one-twentieth of one per cent. and a tax of one-third of one per cent on each miner's inch of water used in hydraulic mines. Provision was made for assessing lands benefitted by the work proposed. In other respects the bill is same as original.

SENATE.—The Senate adopted report of Conference Committee on Senate Bill No. 118. The bill passes with disputed points insisted upon by the Assembly Bill now goes to the Enrolling Committee, and it may be expected that it will soon become a law and the Courts fully set in motion.

City Charter.

SAN FRANCISCO, March, 23,—Supreme Court this morning sustained demurrer of Election Commissioners to injunction granted the Board of Supervisors to restrain Commissioners from ordering election for choice of fifteen freeholders to frame city charter. Decision does not decide the legalty of call for election, but merely declares proceedings under injunction irregular.

EASTERN.

Chinese.

WASHINGTON, March 23.—The report telegraphed from here that Minister Seward had succeeded in negotiating a new treaty with China is pronounced false by Secretary Evarts. It was very circumstantial and even purported to give the provisions of the treaty, among which was included an agreement which would make China an ally of this Government in preventing Chinese immigration to California, Secretary Evarts says that negotiations are about where they were a year ago, when they were taken up largely in consequence of the Chinese bill in Congress. Evarts seems to find the Chinese as wiley set of diplomats as any he has to deal with; much more, he says, than the Japanese who are a more warlike and a franker race. He remarks that they have grown to be very jealous of the profits made by America and other foreign merchants who trade on their shores, and are really contemplating an adoption of a policy leading to the exclusion of all foreigners from participating in commerce with China. The Secretary seems to dread the reopening, by Congress, of the Chinese question, and evidently thinks it will be a very delicate matter to adjust. The relations of the two countries, that there may be a more suitable regulation of Chinese immigration to this country, and at the same time a free interchange of commodities. This, he says, is the problem the State Department has to work out. Evarts says that so far as he knows the Chinese Government, as represented here, is not in favor of any such treaty as has been published in the newspapers. The report thus contradicted and what has also been explicitly denied and discredited by Assistant Secretary John Hay, and by Mr. Hayes as recently as last Saturday, is revamped today with sundry changes and modifications which only show how ignorant its authors are of the existing laws. Among the most important provisions of the alleged treaty, described in one of the Washington evening papers, is said to be one prohibiting the emigration of lewd women from China to the United States. The Chinese authorities are reported to have made a stout opposition to it, and to have consented to the provision with reluctance, all of which is rather remarkable in view of the fact that our own Federal Statutes have, for a number of years covered precisely the same grounds that every possible effort to effect such surrender has been made.

Indian Matters.

WASHINGTON, March 23.—The Senate Committee on Indian Affairs yesterday completed their draft of the bill submitted by Secretary Schurz to carry into effect his argument with the Ute Indians, and reported it to the Senate with a recommendation for its passage with several amendments immaterial except one amendment on agreement, so that no portion of the money coming to the White River Utes under agreement shall be paid them, until they shall have surrendered all members of the tribe who were implicated in the murder of Agent Meeker and the employes at White River, or until the Secretary of the Interior shall be convinced.

Sad Affair.

MARSHAL, TEXAS, March 23.—H. F. Lewis an old and respected citizen, administered a dose of morphine to his twelve year old son about midnight Sunday. The boy was found yesterday morning alive, but lived only a few minutes. Lewis was found on his wife's grave in a comatose condition and died last night. He had evidently taken a dose of morphine also. Lewis for sometime had shown symptons of insanity caused by the death of his wife.

Home Again.

GALVESTON, March 23.—1 o'clock p. m. The City of Mexico has just arrived with General Grant on board.

For Tilden.

PROVIDENCE, R. I. March 23.—The Democratic State Convention instructed its delegates to Cincinnati to vote for Tilden.

The Chippewas.

ST. PAUL MINN., March 22.—A delegation of Millices and Chippewas called together forty representative citizens of Morrison county and appealed to them to intercede with the Government not to permit the pine land speculators to rob them of their homes. These Indians are highly regarded on account of their loyalty to the Whites in times past, and will be aided in the matter.

Murder.

ALMA, COL., March 23.—W. J. Porter, a hard character, shot and killed Thomas Callaghan yesterday. The murder was unprovoked, and in less than an hour about fifty unmasked citizens gathered at the jail and hung Porter to the ridge poll of the building. He swore until they put the rope around his neck, then spoke a few words and said, "Pull up the rope, boys."

Lynchers.

LINCOLN, ILL., March 23.—A party of twenty masked men visited the jail ostensibly to try W. Harrison, accused of tampering with a child. The Marshal feared lynching and told the prisoner to fly for his life, which he did amid a shower of bullets.

FOREIGN.

LONDON, March 23—The times says that Parnell's determination that the advanced home rulers should put forward new candidates in a number of districts, to oppose moderate home rulers or liberals, who decline to give home rulers pledges, has just thrown Irish politics into a state of confusion which may benefit the Conservatives.

More Prisons.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 23.—The President of the administrative Council of Eastern Siberia, having reported a pressing necessity for new prisons, owing to the great influx of political prisoners during the past year, additional prisons will be constructed immediately on the river Ivanofka. The most stringent measures are being adopted against Nihilists. A large number of suspected persons have been arrested and the police make frequent domicilatory visits.

At a dinner in honor of Emperor Williams birthday, the Czar said, "On the anniversary of my ascention to the throne the Emperor of Germany gave me a renewed proof of his constant friendship by an official letter, which was immediately published. Also by a private letter, both of which deeply moved me. I reciprocate the sentiments and wishes expressed therein and count upon the maintainance and consolidation of the relations which have existed for more than a century between the two peoples. I drink to the health of the Emperor, my best friend.

THE CHRONICLE.

BODIE, MARCH 24, 1880.

War has broken out in the CHRONICLE office. The ladies want their coin.

Thus sayeth the Free Press of yesterday, and last night's Standard followed suit with the following:

"It is said that the lady compositors in the office of the Bodie Barnacle are on a strike for their pay—very poor pay at that."

If the above statements were confined strictly to the ordinary readers of the Press and Standard, their general character for mendacity would render contradiction superfluous; but inasmuch as both papers are largely used for wrapping and other purposes, we say, for the benefit of such unfortunates into whose hands they may fall, that the statement is false in every particular. Next!

MINING ACCIDENT.—Yesterday. Patrick Dougherty, a miner in the old Standard shaft, while at work in the mine, had a narrow escape, some four tons of rock, etc., falling where he was at work. A large rock struck him on the head, making an ugly scalp wound, but, fortunately, not breaking the skull. Dr. VanZandt dressed the wound, and is giving him every attention.

A DENIAL.—The hostler at Cluggage & Co's. stable, who was mentioned in yesterday's paper as having been drunk when he had trouble with Nick Baule, denies the charge and says that no man in Bodie ever saw him intoxicated. We wish to do no man an injustice, and thereby give him the benefit of this denial.

FALSE.—The Press' assertion that there was war in our office, because the compositors want coin, is without foundation in fact, and the publishing of such an uncalled for lie will re-act upon itself. Our credit is too good to be injured by such contemptable means.

NEW BUILDING.—In a few days H. Ward will commence the erection of a building, 25x100 feet, south and adjoining Miners' Union Hall. The rear portion of the upper floor has been leased to the Odd Fellows.

ANOTHER ROBBERY.—It seems the cracksmen and house breakers of Bodie have made Bonanza street their stamping ground. Last night another fair denizen of that thoroughfare was robbed of a gold watch and chain.

THE DILLON CASE.—The examination of Dillon for the Travis murder has been finished and Justice Peterson will probably render his decision to-day. The case has occupied the Court several days.

COURT PROCEEDINGS.—Henry Olds, for assault to murder, was examined yesterday before Justice Newman, and continued till this morning.

NEW ROAD.—The new road between the Bulwer-Standard Mill and the Syndicate Mill is fast approaching completion, and will be a good solid highway.

SNOW BLIND.—Two of the men working on the new road between the Bulwer-Standard and Syndicate Mills, became snow blind, and one is in a critical condition.

LUNDY CITY.—Quite a real estate excitement has been inaugurated at Lundy City, Homer District, and lots are changing hands like hot cakes.

THE PIONEERS.—Hereafter the Pacific Coast Pioneers will hold monthly meetings—Second Tuesdays.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.—The Knights will meet at Odd Fellows' Hall, this evening at 7½ o'clock, on important business.

PERSONAL.—Wm. Hardy, Superintendent of the Mammoth, left for Virginia yesterday.

The British corvette Comus called at the island of Triestan d'Acunha, February 8th, to present, in the name of the President of the United States, to the senior resident, Peter Green, a gold chronometer watch; to the next in rank, a binocular glass; and to the rest of the inhabitants £40 apiece, as a reward for saving the lives of American shipwrecked crews.

A Frenchman has invented a new dish, and Paris has gone crazy over it. Take a head of celery and boil the heart in vinegar water for a quarter of an hour, wipe it dry, and place it in a sauce made of sugar flavored with lime-juice. It is called crystalized celery.

A report is in circulation in Maine that Garcelon is to leave that State for Georgia.

On May 13th, three Molly Maguires are to be hanged in Pennsylvania.

Ben Butler purposes visiting California in April.

In rejecting the nomination of Summers of Georgia for Census Supervisor. Blaine made a humorous speech, saying that Summers had established beyond any doubt in his letter to the President asking for the appointment, that he was a firm, unflinching Republican, and in his subsequent letters and declarations seeking confirmation at the hands of the Senate he was a redhot and uncompromising Democrat. Further than this, he had proved himself to have been an unswerving loyalist and enthusiastic Confederate. "I regret," said Blaine, "I have not two votes, for then I would take great pleasure in giving one to confirm this devoted Unionist and this sincere Republican, and equal satisfaction in giving the other to reject this active rebel and this ardent Democrat."

A Chicago Methodist Conference expelled Rev. T. B. Miller from the ministry and church, and suspended Rev. William Major from the ministry for one year. Miller was the Dean and Major the Secretary of a medical college, where a reporter registered as a student, and by the paying of $25 received from the Dean a certificate entitling him (the reporter) to practice medicine. An appeal will be taken in both cases.

WENT UNDERGROUND.—Fred. Elliott did not get away for New York night before last, as he anticipated, but took his departure last night. He yesterday took a trip through the underground regions of the bonanza mines, passing down through the C. C. Shaft. The heat rather astonished him. He says the Bodie mines are regular icehouses in comparison.—Virginia Enterprise.

APPRECIATIVE.—The Bodie Free Press of the 13th republishes our report of Prescott District entire—gives it as an original article in its local columns. This is, of course, highly complimentary to the "local historian" of the Herald, and shows a faith in his works, but a proper credit—that is to say, a little common decency now and then, is relished by the best of men.—Mammoth Herald.

That is the way our cotem. fills its local columns—by stealing from other papers, and localizing the "stealings." The Detroit Free Press and Burlington Hawkeye are valuable in that respect. Common decency is unknown in the Press office.

GOOD BOOKS.—Albert H. Mertes is now in our city soliciting subscriptions for the following good and valuable books: Foundation of success and Laws of trade, by D. R. Shafer, A. M. Life and Travels of General Grant. The Complete Home, by Mrs. Julia McNair Wright. Human Science by O. S. Fowler. Pictoral History of the United States, by James D. McCabe. Detectives of Europe and America by McWaters. The Tramps Abroad, by Mark Twain. He also takes orders for blanks, charts, maps and stationary. The above works mentioned are nicely gotten up, and Mr. Mertes has already a number of orders.

MARBLE WORK.—Frank N. Fish, of the firm of Aitken & Fish, of the Pioneer Marble Works, Sacramento, is in town, and can be found at H. Ward's undertaking rooms, where he will receive orders for marble work of all kinds, particularly monuments and tombstones. Mr. Fish will canvass the city.

James M. Grath, a recent arrival from San Francisco, and William Herbert, a boiler-maker, and for three years past a resident of Puget Sound, have been arrested at Seattle, Washington Territory, with counterfeit dollars in their possession. Much of the money has been set afloat.

William Pulsipher, of Shoal Creek, near Pioche, Nev., a stock-raiser, has become deranged and has to be tied down. His insanity is said to have been caused by worrying over the loss of his stock, a considerable portion of his cattle having perished during the late cold weather.

The Grain Ring of Michigan has come to grief. Three banks in Grand Rapids lost $125,000; and other Western banks lost $162,000, and they are not yet out of the woods.

A Mrs. Sargent is trying to establish herself at New York in the business of furnishing Chinese for factories and families.

The City of Tokio, which left San Francisco, took as part of her cargo 650 cases of rifles, valued at $13,000, for Yokohama.

The Litton Springs, near Healdburg, are to be remodeled into a college, to be known as Mound University.

Robert L. Tilden, one of the old-time printers of the Pacific Coast, died in San Francisco on the 19th instant.

The Republicans of Rhode Island have nominated A. H. Littlefield for Governor, and H. Fay for Lieutenant Governor.

Dr. L. H. Carey, of Oakland, has been appointed Resident Physician at San Quentin.

There were 89 deaths in San Francisco last week; males, 59; females 30.
